SUBJECT: 18 July 1963 Meetings with J. RAUS.

1. Undersigned met with J. RAUS in the DOD/SR s/h on 18 July from about 1800 to 2100 hours.

2. ITEMS DISCUSSED:

a. RAUS turned over approx 2500 cards on Estonian personalities from material furnished him earlier. He was given $107.50 for passing to his wife for 49 hours of work.

b. Undersigned turned over to RAUS the following material for typing on cards:

- 1) 1949-59 Toronto Church anniversary.
- 2) Confirmants in the NYC Natl. Indep. Church, 1962/63
- 3) List of approx 1000 names (with full biog data) on Estonian types in West German Refugee Camps.
- 4) HKL personalities
- 5) Residents of Sov Nat

c. Additionally, RAUS was given the Tartu Univ Directory for his wife to translate.

d. RAUS was asked to give thought to Estonians at Cornell, Rochester, and NYU, Brooklyn Polytech, and Columbia. He could recall no one at the moment but promised to send the info if anything comes to mind.

e. On approx 15 Aug RAUS is going away for approx a month on duty with the DOB summer training program.

f. RAUS was instructed not to contact the undersigned in view of his absence except in case of emergency upon which he could communicate his message (s) to the undersigned's colleagues.

6. HEINE

San Francisco

1) As of last report, HEINE was in ~~San Francisco~~/where he was staying with

A. VESKE
lives 535 Arkansas St.,

and with other Estonians in the area.

2) The HEINE controversy still rages. However, HEINE's true colors are beginning to come out more clearly. RAUS reportedly that HEINE has now denounced as having been in the Soviet graces as KAMMER, during the first Sov occupation, had been dispatched to Moscow as an outstanding athlete.

3) The IEL group in Baltimore, with

Robert SUKLANE

at the helm, whom RAUS describes as nothing but an illiterate rabble rouser, has come up with the idea of summoning HEINE to Baltimore, with travel expenses fully covered by the IEL, in order to confront HEINE with the accusations against him and then to ask him if this is true. SUKLANE feels that HEINE would never lie to his classmates and fellow Estonians. The classmates who will be assembled for this confrontation will include, among others,

Jalins KANGUR,

A. VESKE (see above),

HARRY VENBER
musician,
lives Lakewood, NJ.

Further, SUKLANE has come upon the idea, probably even suggested to SUKLANE by HEINE (RAUS and others believe that HEINE is at the bottom of this), of writing to another classmate of HEINE, one

Heino AMERE
lives in Soviet Estonia,

in order to get the most recent word from Soviet Estonia about HEINE's bona fides. If AMERE states that HEINE is bona fide, this will then be accepted at face value. Heino AMERE is the brother of

Ago AMERE,
lives Washington DC.

4) In regard to his denunciations, HEINE has mentioned to

Evald NAGI

that RAUS and VALLASTE should be removed from the IEL and divorced from Estonian political activities.

5. Reportedly,

Klar LIPPING

a former vice commander of the IEL and a former VEF employee, has taken up the defense of HEINE and has written to a number of individuals in Estonia in order to gain their support for HEINE as is represented by the E. NEED group.

h. RAUS turned over the attached two reports.

i. RAUS reported that

Misa LEPIK
lives 417 Santa Fe, Ave, Berkeley, Calif, widow. []
